

Hyrum Shurtliff Winterton Barn

This barn is located at 2541 S 3000 W in Charleston, Utah. Hyrum Shurtliff Winterton and other Winterton family members and neighbors built this barn of native red pine timbers and pine siding in about 1918.

Over the years, it has been used for many purposes, but mainly for hay storage for dairy operations, range cattle and smaller animals.

Ownership appears to passed from: Hyrum Shurtliff Winterton, and eventually to Paul E Carlson, then Joseph and Julie Thacker, then in 1959 it went to Sharon J Winterton, then in 1967 to Valeo Winterton, then to Calvin & Shirley Scofield, then to James Ritchie, then to John Moore, then to Bret Burgess, then to Thomas & Terry St John, then to the present owners, Paul J Askins.

Informants: Dale & Rhea Cordner Carlson, Paul E Carlson, Sharon J Winterton and Eugene J Whiting.

Hyrum Shurtliff Winterton Barn

²⁶⁴⁵
This barn is located at 2645 South 3000 W in Charleston, Utah. It was built by ~~Elisha Webster~~ for Hyrum Shurtliff Winterton in about 1918, of native red pine timbers.

At various times it has housed horse stables, with 8 stalls in the lean-to; three pens for calves; and hay for beef cattle. In 1938, it had 3 milk cows in it. In 1946-48, it had a dairy built in the west sheds.

Successive owners have been: Hyrum Shurtliff Winterton, for 5 years, then John Clarence Whiting, then about 1930 Wayne C Whiting obtained it from his father. Then Ray Piper, a plumber from Midway, purchased it. It was then sold to an auto dealer in SLCU as an investment. His last name was Miller. Later, Don & Alice Buehner, of Salt Lake bought it. Then Guy Hatch, of California purchased it. Later, Dr Fred Shean Kay obtained it. →
